

Why Book Carol?

- She has a story... She thought her destiny was decided when she followed in the footsteps of her family and joined the Metropolitan Toronto Police Force. Life has a funny way of switching direction and sent her on another path into a world she could never have foreseen. Love, illness and a Paralympic triumph followed.
- She's Inspirational... Audience members will be inspired to embrace change and adversity.
- She's Motivational... Combining insights from policing, sport and living with a chronic illness she has a deep understanding of life which enables her to provide amazing insight to groups
- Reputation... Carol is personable, conscientious and very easy to work with. She will be at your event well in time and is happy to stay afterwards to answer any questions or socialise with your audience
- Promotion... She is happy to promote your conference with video, blog and social media leading up to your event.
- Extras... Carol has books which would be more assistance in helping bring home her lessons and messages. She is also happy to share and pass around her gold and silver medals for people to have a look at.
- Testimonials... She has awesome testimonials from Directors and C-Suite People...INCLUDING THEIR NAMES.
- Speaks On... Harnessing Your FORCE - Being Fearless, Original, Reframing your thoughts to build Resilience, having Courage to take a Chance on Change and Embracing the Positive
